

Lucy Weiser

Jessie Pond

Constance Dowd

Bauman-Gates-Orbeton-McKenna

Dr. Bill Bauman and his wife Mary begin a long association with Camp Runoia as the camp doctor and nurse. Daughter Anna spends her first of many summers at camp, and sister Mary joins her in third shack in 1934. The picture of Anna (left) and Mary (right) is from the 1934 log.

1933

1954

Anna Bauman Orbeton sends daughters Susan and Jane to Runoia for the first of 14 summers as campers and counselors.

Mary Bauman Gates' daughter Linda (left) begins the first of eight summers at camp in 1957. Daughters Leslie and Brenda Gates (below) attend camp in 1967 and 1968.

1957

1967

1973

Peter Orbeton (brother of "Janie-O" and "Susie-O") joins the CR staff for two summers.

1981

Peter's daughter, Melissa Gary (left), begins the first of 11 summers at Runoia as a camper and a counselor.

2018

Janie-O's son Tim (shown above in Miss Weiser's lap on her 101st birthday in 1976) sends his daughter Lucy McKenna to camp (pictured at right) for the first of many summers to come (we hope!).

Could Mary Bauman ever have imagined that her great great granddaughter would attend Runoia 85 years after her first summer there?